Dear Sir:

In the Amendment filed September 13, 2004 for the above-referenced case, a typographical error is present in the claims set.

In Claim 23, the first word "The" is missing the "T." The claim was not indicated as being amended. The previous claims set correctly show the word "The." Applicants respectfully request that Claim 23 be considered with the correctly spelled word "The." For the Examiner's convenience, a complete claims set begins on the next page. No amendments have been made.
